DEEPEST DIVING SUB — The "Aluminaut," designed as the world's deepest diving submarine, is lowered into the Thames River during launching ceremonies at the General Dynamics Shipyard in Groton, Conn. The three man sub, constructed of aluminum by Reynolds International, will dive to depths of up to three miles.

Chileans Vote Today, Could Go Commie

By THOMAS J. STONE

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Chileans vote today for a president, and their ballots may have a profound effect on Latin American politics.

No matter who wins, this copper-rich country — in which millions of American dollars have been invested — will be veering to the left.

Thursday night, only hours before the voters went to bed, the Communist party already was talking as if its candidate, Socialist Sen. Salvador Allende, had won.

Communist party chief Luis Corvalan told a news conference he hoped a "mutual understanding" could be reached for a government takeover of the giant U.S. companies that produce 90 per cent of Chile's copper. Corvalan said the amount of compensation to the companies would be "secondary."

Allende, 56, is opposed by another senator, Eduardo Frei, 53, who is a member of the Christian Democratic party and a moderate leftist. He favors more state control over foreign owned companies, but also says he wants to encourage more U.S. investments.

Political experts figured Frei might win by a narrow margin. The U.S. copper companies are Anaconda and Kennecott. Chile's telephone and electric companies also are U.S. owned.

The total number of ballots is expected to be around 2.5 million. The polls close 3 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time) and the outcome should be known within a few hours.

The new president will take office Nov. 4 for a six-year term. He will replace Jorge Alessandri, a middle-of-the-road who is barred by the Constitution from another term.

After Attack, Nazis Allowed at Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities refused today to eject three Nazis from its hearings on visits to Cuba by U.S. students.

When the hearing convened, New York lawyer Ira Gollobin protested that American Nazi party leader George Lincoln Rockwell and two members of his organization were present in the room.

Gollobin was the attorney for Monroe B. Slater, 21, New York, the student witness who was attacked by a Nazi while testifying during Thursday's hearing. "Don't start trouble," Chairman Richard Ichord, D - Mo., told Gollobin. "The chair is also informed that there are Communists in the room. I have no truck with Nazis or Communists. The chair intends to have order."

Ichord, on opening today's hearing, made a statement deploring Thursday's disturbance. He said he had considered closing the hearings to the public because it was difficult to keep out potential troublemakers.

But Ichord added, "the business of Congress is the people's business." Rockwell and his two followers were seated in the rear of the hearing.

Qualifying Petitions Ruled Illegal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two men who tried to qualify as independent candidates for the state Senate were told Thursday by Secretary of State Kelly Bryant that their petitions were legally defective.

The two were Clyde Thomas Newby, 34, of Pine Bluff; and B. T. Ladner, 53, of Blytheville. In both cases the persons who collected the signatures failed to attach affidavits stating the petitions were signed in their presence by qualified voters, a requirement under the state Constitution.

Ladner, who wanted to oppose Sen. Lee Bearden of Leachville, said the persons who circulated his petitions had initiated them, which would enable him to locate the persons and have the affidavits attached.

Bryant granted Ladner an extension on the filing deadline, which was at midnight Thursday.

Newby, a former state policeman, said he had no way of knowing who circulated his petitions and could not correct the defect. He said he would not run as a write-in candidate. He had hoped to run for the seat held by Sen. Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff.

11 Suspected Cases of Encephalitis

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Health Department said Thursday that there are now 11 suspected cases of encephalitis, commonly known as sleeping sickness, in Arkansas.

The latest suspected case is that of a 9-year-old Madison County girl hospitalized at Huntsville.

Carroll County and Ouachita County each have three suspected cases of encephalitis, and White, Mississippi, Pulaski and Boone counties each have one suspected case. Encephalitis is spread by mosquitoes.

Crash Is Fatal

HARRISON, Ark. (AP) — Ruby Hough, 52, of Alpena (Boone County) was killed Thursday when her car crashed into a bridge post at Harrison. Police said a blowout caused the crash.

5 p.m. Monday at Star Is Picture Entry Deadline

The deadline for receiving pictures in Hope Star's $100 Vacation Photo Contest is 5 p.m. Monday, Sept. 7 — Labor Day.

This means 5 p.m. Monday at THE STAR OFFICE. Mail entries should be put in the mailbox not later than Friday night, Sept. 4. This should assure delivery at The Star Saturday. There is no mail delivery Sunday or this coming Monday — Labor Day, a holiday.

Judging will begin Tuesday and the winners will be announced within a few days.

Cab Driver Did Not Want Potatoes

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — A cab driver who didn't want to be paid in potatoes blew the whistle on Edward Johnson, 42, Thursday night.

Johnson hopped into the cab at the railroad station, police said, and asked to be taken to Long Wharf.

Johnson told the driver to stop in front of a produce market and to turn out his lights. Then he hopped out and started hauling sacks of potatoes from a truck and dumping them in the cab, police said.

When the cabbie asked what was going on, Johnson explained he had no money and hoped to raise the fare by selling the spuds.

As Johnson returned to his labors, the cab driver put in a call to his dispatcher. Police said Johnson was still hard at work when they arrived.

Johnson was charged with theft, evading payment of a fare, and intoxication.

Evidence in Fuller Case Being Heard

CLARENDON, Ark. (AP) — The prosecution was halted from introducing part of a medical examiner's report into evidence in the first-degree murder trial of Paul Lewis Beckwith here Thursday.

Beckwith, a 42-year-old Negro, is charged with the December 1954 slaying of Mrs. Sue Fuller, a 25-year-old Brinkley housewife. She died from a blow on the head.

The all-male jury includes one Negro. Prosecutor William Lee asked Allen Templeton, retired head of the Arkansas State Police Criminal Investigation Division, if bloodstains which Lee said were on a board matched the blood type of Mrs. Fuller.

Templeton had identified the board, about three feet long, as the board he received from Brinkley police on the morning after the murder. It is believed to be the murder weapon.

Defense attorney Wiley Branton objected to the question, saying Templeton was not a medical authority and therefore was not qualified to answer.

Lee said Templeton was reading from a medical examiner's report, but Circuit Judge W. J. Waggoner sustained the objections and said such testimony would have to come from a medical authority.

Templeton was allowed to say that the stain on the board appeared to be blood.

Milton Fuller, the victim's husband, testified that he found his unconscious wife beside a bloodstained bed in their home. She died later.

Isaiah Thomas, a Negro of Camden, testified that he had gambled at a nightclub with Beckwith on the night before the slaying and apparently won all of Beckwith's money. He said Beckwith returned later with more money.

Beckwith returned later with more money.

State Between Two Pressures

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansas found itself between two high pressure cells today and the result was clear skies and mild temperatures.

The cells were over Montana and the Carolinas and a cold front separating them was causing showers from Michigan to Kansas. The front was not expected to penetrate into Arkansas.

The Weather Bureau said the current pattern of warm days and cool nights should continue in Arkansas through the Labor Day weekend, although there is a chance of scattered showers in North Arkansas Saturday.

High temperatures Thursday ranged up to 97 degrees at Camden. Overnight low temperatures were generally in the 60s and low 70s.

New Violence, Malaysia Put on War Footing

By TONY ESCODA

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — New racial violence flared in Singapore today as Malaysia entered a state of emergency, ready for a possible armed showdown with Indonesia.

Riot-trained police patrolled Singapore streets as internal trouble plagued the young federation, already tense over a reported landing Wednesday of Indonesian paratroopers on its soil.

Police said two persons were injured as bands of Malays and Chinese roamed the troubled Geyland district, hurling stones at buses, autos and houses. The Cabinet met in Kuala Lumpur to consider the fresh riots as a curfew in Singapore went into effect. The island state was declared to be in a "state of danger to public order."

Seven persons have been killed and 48 injured in racial disturbances since Wednesday, Singapore Radio said today.

The Malaysian government charged that Indonesian agents were behind the latest outbreak.

With pledges of support from its Commonwealth partners, the government acted quickly after the reported landing of 20 Indonesian paratroopers in Johore State, 100 miles southeast of Kuala Lumpur.

Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman said there were "indications of Indonesian preparations to mount a big offensive." He announced the state of emergency, effective today, and said the government "called for a meeting of the U. S. Security Council, charging Indonesia with 'blatant and inexcusable aggression.'"

At the United Nations in New York, informed sources said the council probably would not take up the matter until next week, pending the arrival of a Malaysian delegation.

The emergency alert gives police extraordinary powers of arrest, shortens trial procedure and stiffens penalties for "acts against the government."

The two nations have been engaged in guerrilla warfare in the Borneo states of Sarawak and Sabah, which form Malaysia together with Malaya and Singapore.

The government ministry said Malaysian troops killed four of the Indonesian paratroopers and captured five others. It said one Malaysian was killed.

In Jakarta an Indonesian Foreign Ministry spokesman said the airdrop report was fabricated to gain world sympathy and suppress mounting opposition at home.

Indonesian President Sukarno has vowed to crush Malaysia.

Woes Mount in Viet Nam Politics

By ROY ESSOYAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The political woes of South Viet Nam's government mounted today as one of the nation's top military leaders resigned, charging that Buddhists are in command.

Defense Minister Tran Thien Khiem, the only Catholic on the ruling triumvirate of generals, resigned, a government spokesman said. Khiem was quoted as saying that he "had had enough of the Buddhists running the country."

The resignation followed demands by Buddhist leaders for the ouster of Khiem and other top Vietnamese army officers. Khiem, a four-star general, is the highest ranking active officer in the nation.

An aide to Khanh said he believed Khiem's move was an act of friendship to save Khanh from embarrassment. Khiem will remain in the army.

His decision left Premier Nguyen Khanh virtually isolated as head of the triumvirate formed a week ago when anti-government demonstrations erupted. He now faces the delicate task of balancing Buddhist and Roman Catholic demands on the government.

Khanh is a Buddhist as is the only other remaining member of the former triumvirate, Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh. Khanh ousted Minh last Jan. 30 as head of the government in a bloodless coup.

Tax Collectors Were Delinquent

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — State's Attorney James Cunningham, whose office is conducting a drive against delinquent Peoria County tax payers, has suspended three assistants he said were in the same category.

Two of them were reinstated Thursday after paying their real estate taxes. The third was out of town and not immediately available for comment.

Cunningham said the three were delinquent in tax payments for this year only.

Odds Against Health Bill in the House

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The odds appeared today to be against enactment of a Social Security health-care plan this year despite the 60-28 Senate passage of a bill which would set up such a system.

The health-care provisions were written into the bill by a 49-44 vote Wednesday. The House had included no such plan in the bill it passed. A Senate-House conference committee will prepare the final version.

The Senate named conferees who had voted 5-2 against the health benefits for the aged, although they would normally support the Senate plan in conference.

The House delegation is expected to be headed by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., long-time foe of a Social Security-financed health program. He is likely to have a majority on the group who will side with him.

Nevertheless, Democratic leaders in both branches of Congress said they were determined to push as hard as possible for inclusion of some form of health benefits in the final version of the bill.

The bill as it passed the Senate Thursday includes not only the health-care program but also increased cash payments for all those now on the Social Security rolls.

The Senate made numerous changes in the measure so there is a wide area of disagreement for bargaining purposes in the conference.

A House showdown on the health issue is not expected until the week after next.

Basically, the House bill would provide a five per cent increase in retirement benefits, along with some other provisions.

"The Senate voted instead for a $7 monthly basic increase for retirees, plus the health plan. Both bills would increase Social Security taxes to pay for the added benefits."

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Next Sunday is departure day for "Lassie" CBS' top dog, returning for its 11th television season, will be left behind with a new owner, when his long-time family moves to Australia.

Lassie, if not the viewers, ought to be accustomed to family changes. Her (or, more accurately, his) new owner will be a forest ranger and become Lassie's second and one-half family.

At the beginning of the TV series, Lassie was owned by a family of three, including a boy, Tommy. Tommy, however, began to get pretty big for the part, so Jon Provost was introduced as an orphan, adopted by the family, and later Tommy turned up with a set of brand new parents for Jon. They disappeared after six months and Jon suddenly was the child of June Lockhart and Hugh Reilly.

Bonita Granville Wrather, the former film star who is associate producer of the series and whose husband owns the show, said the decision for another radical change was made last spring "to give us more scope."

The shift of custody will take place during three episodes made last spring to kick off the new season.

Originally the house belonged to Antonio Moreno, who is still a member. The place underwent mutations over the years, but each enlargement placed new strains on the old structure. This year the Masquers decided it was time to move.

There was an attractive offer to sell the property for a high-rise apartment. A new location in the Hollywood area has been scouted by the Masquers, and now they are awaiting the end of negotiations that will spell the doom of the clubhouse.

I paid a call to the old place to rustle a few memories. The heart of the Masquers is the downstairs bar, and there I found Alan Mowbray, just returned from a long run on Broadway and on the road in "Enter Laughing."

Mowbray has been a Masquer since 1932, and his recollections of the place are rich. Throughout its history the club has given dinners in honor of show business notables, though sometimes the kidding of the speeches has made the guest question the honor.

"I'll never forget the dinner we gave for Douglas Fairbanks Sr.," Mowbray reminisced. "He was seated between Will Rogers and Willie Collier Jr., and they roasted him to a turn. Doug was so mad that all he did for his speech was get up, say 'thank you,' and sit down."

The first shot of the Civil War was possibly fired at Pine Bluff in April, 1861, when volunteers there intercepted two boatloads of supplies enroute to Federal forces at Fort Smith and Fort Gibson.

the large caucus room. Four policemen stood behind them.

Four U. S. marshals stood at the front of the hearing room in a position where they could quickly block the central aisle.

Slater had been scheduled for further testimony today, but he was hospitalized at the Washington Medical Center with possible head and neck injuries. A hospital source said his condition was satisfactory.

Slater, one of 84 students who visited Cuba this summer, was starting to testify Thursday when a man later identified by police as Lon L. Dunaway, 28, of Arlington, Va., leaped upon the witness stand and tried to hit Slater.

Police brought down Dunaway, who was wearing the armband of the American Nazi party. The presiding congressman, Rep. Richard Ichord, D-Mo., gavelled the session to a close and rescheduled Slater's appearance for today.

Until that moment, the day had been calm, a far cry from the sessions a year ago when student travelers, dressed in blue jeans, sandals and beards, hooted and jered and soon found themselves dragged out of the House caucus room and tossed onto the sidewalk outside the House office building.

This time, the student travelers showed up in quiet, conservative dress, no different from any other witness or audience on Capitol Hill. And they came armed with an instruction sheet urging them to behave in an orderly way, keep their comments to themselves and obey whatever an officer tells them to do. They followed the instructions.

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her staff have taken over a four-room office suite at 400 Park Ave. to handle more than one million letters she has received since the death of her husband.

The office has been leased by the General Services Administration, which was directed by Congress three weeks after the President's assassination "to provide and maintain suitable space for the purpose" of taking care of letters sent to Mrs. Kennedy.

The President's widow and two children, Caroline and John Jr., are moving soon into a Manhattan apartment.

PADUA, Italy (AP) — Britain's Princess Margaret has received an apology from the Franciscan Friars who guard the shrine of St. Anthony in Padua.

She was barred from entering the 700-year-old church last Saturday and was told she had to put on a jacket to cover her arms. The sister of Queen Elizabeth II slipped into a bolero and walked into the church with her husband. Women must keep their arms covered in Italian churches.

"We would not like anybody to think," a statement by the Friars said, "that a Roman Catholic religious order has intentionally adopted a negative attitude toward the illustrious guests, especially in the time of the great Ecumenical Council."

NEW YORK (AP) — Clare Boothe Luce, a Republican noted for being outspoken, had a prediction about Robert F. Kennedy, a Democrat, if he wins the New York state race against the incumbent Republican, Kenneth B. Keating.

The former congresswoman, playwright and ambassador to Italy was asked Thursday night on a television program about Kennedy's prospects of following his late brother, John F. Kennedy, to the White House some day.

"DEAR ABBY"

IF YOU CAN'T LICK 'EM...

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: This will kill you. We have nothing but money around our house, but I can't spend any of it. You see, my husband is a Numismatist (coin collector) who puts everything he has into his hobby. I wanted to spend $22.50 for a new Easter hat, and he raised the roof. Yet he just paid $75 for a half-dollar! He said it was worth $100 because it was made in 1799 and had seven stars on one side and six on the other. This makes no sense to me at all. He gets piles of coin collectors' magazines, which also run into money. Now I think every man should have a hobby, but I would like to see a little money around here that I can spend.

NUMISMATIST'S WIFE

Dear Wife: Bone up on your hubby's hobby. It's fascinating as well as profitable. One day you might come across a 1901 "S" quarter, which is worth $300.

Dear Abby: I am a young man who has been happily married many years. We have a lovely family. I thought I was satisfied until I had seen my doctor a few times. I can't explain it, but I have fallen madly in love with my doctor. This makes no sense at all as he is happily married, and I know it is all one-sided and he hasn't the slightest interest in me. But this feeling has me obsessed. It's like a high school romance. I am so self-conscious around him, trying to make a good impression, I feel like a fool. Any suggestions to help straighten me out? I'm in the middle of a series of treatments.

IN LOVE

Dear In: Your "romance" is neither serious nor lasting. At least you have no illusions about whether it is mutual. You'll get over it. Just keep telling yourself it doesn't make any sense at all. Because—although it's not uncommon—it doesn't.

Dear Abby: Is it true that you believe in spiritualism and card reading? There are some who say that that is how you get the answers to the questions that people send in. I would like an honest answer as this is very important to me. Thank you. Inquisitive In Redmond, Ore. Dear Inquisitive: Neigh! I use "horse sense."

Dear Abby: I just read the letter from Ready To Burst, the woman whose mother-in-law was in the habit of calling everything her son's, as though he had no wife. It was "Bob's car, Bob's house, Bob's children, etc. My mother-in-law has the same habit. Nothing is ever mine. It's always "Michael's." When I first became pregnant she went all over town announcing, "Michael is going to have a baby!"

Writers to Visit SWC Campuses

DALLAS (AP) — Seventeen sports writers from Texas and one from Arkansas begin a 2,600-mile tour of Southwest Conference football training camps today at Fayetteville, Ark.

The University of Arkansas will hold press conferences and picture taking sessions for the newsmen.

The next stop is Texas Tech at Lubbock on Saturday. The tour will wind up the following Saturday at Baylor.

The only Arkansan in the party is Orville Henry, sports editor of the Arkansas Gazette.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nicholas B. Katzenbach was running the Justice Department today following Robert F. Kennedy's resignation as attorney general. Katzenbach, 42, a former University of Chicago law professor who has been deputy attorney general, became the department's top-ranking officer Thursday when Kennedy quit to run for the U.S. Senate from New York.

It is believed unlikely that President Johnson will fill the attorney general's spot on a permanent basis until after the Nov. 3 presidential election.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has filed a claim in U.S. Tax Court for another $52,000 in back income taxes from Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

The Internal Revenue Service says in the claim that among other items Hoffa failed to list more than $60,000 in legal fees paid by his Detroit Local 299.

Hoffa's attorneys are disputing all claimed items — covering 1958 and 1960 — and have asked that the trial be held in Detroit.

In another case, still pending, the government is seeking $20,295 it claims Hoffa owes from his 1959 income, which included

'Influence' Case Brings 2nd Arrest

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A second Little Rock printing company executive was arrested Thursday on a charge of paying a purchasing agent to influence the award of subcontracts by the Martin-Marietta Corp., the Titan II missile contractor.

Leroy Sparrow, 46, president and owner of Southern Litho Supply, is charged with giving $350 to Louis A. Wall, 24, a former purchasing agent for Martin-Marietta "as an inducement for the award of subcontracts."

The subcontracts were for office and supplies and printing. The charge also said the payment was an "acknowledgment" of subcontracts previously awarded to Sparrow's firm.

Wall had been arrested previously on a charge of taking $306 from Jimmy Eugene Faulkner, 30, owner and operator of Midwestern Printing Co.

Faulkner was charged with making the payment to influence the award of subcontracts for office supplies and printing. William R. Laneer, 29, of North Little Rock, had been arrested on charges of delivering the $306 to Wall on behalf of Faulkner.

The men were indicted Tuesday.

$22,930 in legal fees. In both cases, Hoffa's attorneys contend that the legal fees were necessary to Hoffa's business as Teamsters president.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed a bill Thursday government officials hope will help end the nation's coin shortage.

It keeps the date "1964" on all coins made by the mint until the shortage ends in order to make them less attractive to hoarders.

Testimony before congressional committees by government officials showed hoarding by speculatively inclined coin dealers and collectors had contributed to the shortage.

The secretary of the Treasury will determine when the coin shortage is over.

Teenagers Cause Jobless Number Rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are three times as many unemployed teenagers as there are any other classification of job seekers and they are largely responsible for a rise in unemployment in August to 5.1 per cent.

For the first time in 54 months unemployment had dropped in July to below 5 per cent. But the decline to 4.9 per cent was wiped out when the usual drop in teen-age unemployment in August failed to materialize last month.

Heads of families and other adults continued a tthe lowest level of joblessness in seven years. And the number of unemployed actually dropped by 160,000.

What sent the seasonally adjusted jobless rate up again was that teen-age joblessness usually declines 200,000 in August — 40,000 more than the case this year.

Harold Goldstein, a spokesman for the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the rising influx of teenagers in the labor market is likely to heighten the unemployment problem in the next few years "if there isn't an offsetting increase in demand."

Launching Is Re-scheduled

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Launching of the OGO scientific satellite, frustrated once by ground support equipment trouble, is rescheduled for tonight.

The Atlas-Agena booster rocket is slated to blast off in a favorable 45-minute period starting at 8:23 p.m.

OGO, which stands for orbiting geophysical observatory, is the largest scientific satellite ever built by the United States. It is to probe many mysteries of space.

Drought Conditions

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service said Tuesday that seven more Arkansas counties have been included in a livestock feed program because of drought conditions. The addition of Garland, Hot Springs, Howard, Lincoln, Lonoke, Newton and Saline counties brings to 41 the number of Arkansas counties in the program.

Mantilla Homer Wins for Sox; Orioles Win

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Felix Mantilla has moved around so much this season, Boston Manager Johnny Pesky would like to give him a rest.

But you don't bench a guy who's hitting home runs at a faster rate than Dick Stuart.

The 30-year-old Mantilla continued his amazing onslaught Thursday night, clouting two homers and two singles, driving in three runs, as Boston defeated Kansas City 7-5.

The homers increased Mantilla's season total to 24, only 11 short of the number he hit altogether in his first eight seasons in the majors.

Stuart leads the Red Sox with 30 homers — he also is tied for fourth in the American League — but the slugging first baseman has hit his homers at the rate of one for every 17 times at bat. Mantilla has connected once every 14 trips to the plate.

Mantilla has started at six positions — all three outfield posts, second base, shortstop and third base. He played left field for his latest outburst.

His first homer opened a two-run fifth inning that tied the game 3-3. Mantilla's run-scoring single gave the Red Sox another deadlock, 4-4, in the sixth. He finished his one-man attack with a bases empty homer in the eighth.

In other AL games, Baltimore defeated Minnesota 4-1 and Los Angeles stopped New York 4-2.

In the National League, Houston drubbed Philadelphia 6-0, Chicago halted Cincinnati 3-0, Milwaukee walloped St. Louis and San Francisco defeated New York 3-1.

Dick Radatz recorded his 13th victory in relief for Boston, allowing two hits in the final four innings. He struck out six. One of the hits off Radatz was Wayne Causey's run-producing single in the sixth that put the Athletics into a 5-4 lead.

The Red Sox, however, struck back in the seventh on Ed Bresnold's two-run homer off reliever John Wyatt.

The Orioles increased their league lead to one game over the idle Chicago White Sox. Wally Bunker pitched a six-hitter for his 14th triumph against four defeats, giving up a run in the fourth inning on singles by Harmon Killebrew and Jimmie Hall, a walk and a grounder.

Jack Brandt ripped a three-run double with two out in the seventh inning, breaking a 1-1 tie. The blow came off starter Camilo Pascual, 13-10, after Baltimore loaded the bases on Luis Aparicio's single, a double by Brooks Robinson and an intentional walk to Charlie Lau.

The third-place Yankees fell four games behind the Orioles, getting only four hits off the combined pitching of Ken McBride and Bob Lee. McBride went the first five innings and gained only his second victory since June 11.

Lee, who held the Yankees hitless, made his 62nd appearance, tying the AL record for a rookie held by Radatz.

Jim Fregosi and Lou Clinton each drove in two Angel runs, Fregosi cracking a two-run homer in the first inning and Clinton belting a two-run double in the fifth.

Larsen Pitches Shutout; Phils Maintain Lead

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Larsen hadn't seen a line-score like that in five years.

The 35-year-old Houston right-hander had his memory refreshed Thursday night as he strung out the zeroes on the Connie Mack Stadium scoreboard, checking the National League leading Philadelphia

Phillies 6-0 on four hits for his first shutout since May 30, 1959.

Larsen, who pitched a perfect game for the New York Yankees in the 1956 World Series, had not pitched a shutout in 35 starts since leaving the Yankees five years ago and beginning a short tour of the majors that took him to Kansas City, Chicago and San Francisco.

Acquired by the Colts early in the season, Larsen has been used primarily in relief but has made five starts in the last five weeks, breaking even in four decisions while putting together an eye-opening 1.58 earned run average.

Despite the loss, the Phillies maintained their 5½-game edge in the pennant race with 30 games to go as Lew Burdette of the Chicago Cubs shut out second-place Cincinnati 3-0 on four hits.

San Francisco's Gaylord Perry

pitched a five-hitter in the Giants' 3-1 victory over the New York Mets and Wade Blasingame allowed only seven hits as Milwaukee belted St. Louis 7-0.

Pittsburgh and the Los Angeles

Dodgers were not scheduled.

Baltimore built its American League lead to a full game over the idle Chicago White Sox by defeating Minnesota 4-1 while the Los Angeles Angels dropped the third-place New York Yankees four games back, 4-2. Boston whipped Kansas City 7-5 in the only other game scheduled.

Mike White slammed two doubles and a pair of singles for the Colts, who gave Larsen more than enough working room with a five-run sixth inning rally highlighted by Carroll Hardy's

two-run homer.

Walt Bond's single, a double

by Bob Aspromonte and Hardy's homer off Dennis Bennett produced the first three runs before singles by Jerry Grote,

Eddie Kasko and Bob Lillis plus

White's double wrapped up the uprising.

Burdette, now 16-7, got the only run he needed in the second inning when Len Gabrielson drew a walk off John Tsitouris, stole second and scored on Ron

Campbell's first major league

hit. A walk and Billy Williams' homer in the fourth finished the scoring.

Billy McCool, the Reds' rookie reliever, turned in a sharp performance over the final three innings, striking out seven of nine men.

Perry, bringing his record to 9-9, drove in two of the Giants' runs and had a shutout until the ninth when Joe Christopher's triple and a sacrifice fly by George Altman produced the Mets' run.

The Giants scored two runs in the fourth on consecutive doubles by Duke Snider and Tom Haller and Perry's single. In the sixth, Haller beat out a bunt, moved to third on Jim Davenport's double and scored on Perry's sacrifice fly.

Blasingame, now 4-4, held a 1-

0 lead on Hank Aaron's 24th homer before starting a six-run seventh inning outburst by drawing a walk.

Successful singles by Rico

Carty, Le Maye, Aaron and Ed

Mathews produced three runs.

Joe Torre then tripled and Ed

Bailey drove in the final run with a sacrifice fly.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

—The Razorbacks' No. 1 defensive team was hard to budge, but the Nov. 2 and other defensive units did not do as well during a defensive scrimmage Wednesday in Razorback Stadium.

The top defenders made it almost impossible for the T-team to move the football during a 10 minute period.

Then the No. 2 offensive team was pitted against the second defensive team, and quarterback Ronnie South passed to Bobby Roper for a touchdown and got the team in field goal
